

Contents

| | |
|--|-----|
| Editorial | 97 |
| Danilo R. Streck | |
| What could happen when action research meets ideas of sociomateriality? | 99 |
| Stephen Allen and Judi Marshall | |
| Participant and cooperative research within a social movement of recyclable materials collectors: Methodological reflections on a long-term political praxis | 113 |
| Cristiano Benites Oliveira and Emil Albert Sobottka | |
| Action Research and Teacher Education: the use of research in a classroom for the transformation of reality | 132 |
| Nilda Stecanela, Alessandra Chaves Zen and Fabiana Pauletti | |
| Language Education and primary school children: the story of using stories | 157 |
| Christina Nicole Giannikas | |
| Book Review | |
| Systematisation of experience: theory and practice | |
| Cordero, D. B., & Torres Carrillo, A. (2017). La Sistematización como investigación interpretativa crítica . Bogotá: Editorial El Búho | 171 |
| Carolina Schenatto da Rosa | |

Call for papers

Building bridges in/through action research 175

Special issue of the International Journal of Action Research as part of the Conference to take place in San Sebastian in 2020